Trial of Woman for Murder. Mrs. Ross Di Pietor, acquitted by the oroner's jury for the killing of her brother-in-law, Michael Rogo, in New York, was placed on trial yesterday on an indictment charging murder in the first degree in Part II., General Sessions, stake when she shot her brother in law to death. The woman had been previously hetd for trial. Rogo was killed on October 3. Since that time Mrs. Di Pietro has been in the To.obs, the ninemonths old baby which she held in her arm at the time she shot her brother-in-law sharing her bed and her prison fare.

A great deal has been written and preached from the pulpits on the killing of Rogo by Mrs. Pietro. The man, with a pair of shears in his hand, made a victor, the property of the property of the party of the property of the property of the party of the property lent attack upon her. To save her life quick action was necessary, and she fired a shot into the man's body. He ran down stairs, and on the sidewalk, with her baby in her left arm, the woman sent the second bullet into his body.

Rogo died on the spot,
Mrs. Pietro's first defense was that peatedly he annoyed the woman, and her rebuffs goaded him to desperation. On the morning of the killing Rogo was violent in his manifestations, and when repulsed made at the woman with a pair of heavy tailor's shears. It was then the woman shot her assailant.

Brooklyn's Peter's Pence. The American pilgrimage, led by the Right Rev. Charles E. McDonnell, bishop of Brooklyn, N. Y., was received shop of Brooklyn, N. Y., #88 received yesterday morning by the Pope in the Clomentine Hall of the Vatican. The pilgrims all wore badges of the American and papal colors. Bishop McDonnell presented the Pontiff with $5,000, the Peter's pence offering of the Brooklyn Diocese, and Monsigor John I. Barrett, the Bishop's secretary, presented the Pope with $2,000 as the offering of the priests of the same diocese. The Pope thanked them warmly, saying he was most grateful to the pilgrims for coming to Rome from such a great distance and blessed all of them and their families, giving the priests present permission to extend the papal benediction to their flocks.
